Claims 15-32 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

In claim 15, it is not clear which rubber band(s), the propelling rubber bands and/or the tensioning rubber bands, are guided by the pulleys.

* * * * *

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 15, 17, 19, 28-30, 32, & 33 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Blair 4,458,658.

Blair shows a gun for propelling a shaft (Figure 3), including a barrel 60; rubber bands 50, one side of which may be a “propelling rubber band”, and the other side of which may be a “tensioning rubber band”; and pulleys 56, 58, which guide the rubber bands from a top of the barrel to the underside of the barrel.

Claim 34 is objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Claims 16, 18, 21-27, & 31 would be allowable if rewritten or amended to overcome the rejection(s) under 35 U.S.C. 112, 2nd paragraph, set forth in this Office action.
